Date: 03.11.2020

Ministry of Education (MoE) Innovation Cell in collaboration with AICTE and Institution Innovation Council organised an orientation session on “Methods of Exploring and Capturing Values from India Agriculture and Health Sector” on 03rd Nov 2020. The session was webcasted using MHRD Innovation Cell YouTube Channel. The session commenced at 11.00 AM by AICTE Vice-Chairman Dr. MP Poonia. He presented a detailed description of Indian Knowledge System (IKS) contributing towards preservation and creating awareness on ethos and values of Indian Culture and Heritage.

Around 150 staff and students of Vinayaka Mission's Kirupananda Variyar Engineering College Salem attended the awareness program. The speakers Prof. Anil D. Sahasrabudhe, AICTE Chairman and Shri A B Shukla, COO, IKS, AICTE presented complete details of the role of Indian Knowledge System in AICTE for enrichment of knowledge regarding Indian Culture. They also described the importance of engineering and technology in providing feasible technological solutions in agriculture and health sectors. The possibilities of including contents related to agriculture in engineering were also explored.

Both the speakers answered the questions raised by participants and the session concluded at 12.15 PM with thanks to everyone present.
