

Leadership Skills and Time Management on 29.06.2021

The Department of Management Studies and Career Development Cell Jointly organised a online webinar on Leadership Skills and Time Management programme for professional learning communities on 29.06.2021. This programme helped to motivate the students for learn the concepts, styles and techniques of leadership and time management. Dr.G.RamakrishnaPrabu, Associate Professor in EEE and Training and Placement Officer Career Development Cell Delivered welcome address for this event. Dr. A. Nagappan, Principal, delivered a Presidential address and inaugurated the event; and Dr. G. Murugesan delivered the keynote address of this event.

Dr. G. Murugesan Professor, Department of Management Studies, Vinayaka Mission's KirupanandaVariyar Engineering College, Salem acted as the resource person for Leadership skills programme. He covered each areas of leadership skill topic in a given time period. The student has learned new concepts of leadership apart from their syllabus for their development.

Dr. P. Marish Kumar, Associate Professor of Management Studies, organised this online webinar in a successful event and concluded the event with a vote of thanks.Mr. P. Loganathan, Assistant Professor of Electrical and Electronics Engineering, provided technical support for this event.

